

LOVE AIN'T LISTENING

And I am dancing in the street and I am holding all the chances and I am stealing all the flowers and I am telling all the foxes and I am singing all the love songs about my love, oh my love and I am calling to the stars and I am calling out to strangers and I'm dancing on the bus and I am happy on the door-step and I am making all the promises to my love

Love ain't listening, love ain't listening love ain't listening to me

Till I am yelling in the dark and I am weeping in my bed and I am drinking all the drink and I am swearing all the swear - words I'm embarrassing my friends I'm embarrassing myself and I am howling at the moon and I am calling out to no-one and I am kicking all the trees and I am falling all to pieces and I am breaking into parts and I am breaking all my promises Oh my love

I say good bye
I say adieu
I say goodbye
to love and to you

But then you're crying to our friends and you're telling them you miss me and you're staying out too late and your sister says you're lonely and you're holding out your arms and you're calling out my name

And we're hiding from the gang and we're dancing on the doorstep and we're laughing in our chains and we're kissing at the bus stop and we're singing to the moon and we're making all our promises, to our love, to our love love is listening, love is listening love is listening, oh yeah, oh yeah Oh yeah
